

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

File Reference: 2018-2

Position Title: Landowner Engagement and Outreach Manager

Location: Fort Collins, Colorado

Salary: $62,000 - $65,000 commensurate with experience

Employment Status: This full-time, regular appointment will be a Colorado State University Administrative Professional employee.

Closing Date: Applications will be accepted until the position is filled; however, applicants should submit all application materials by 11:59pm on March 12, 2018 for full consideration.

Job Summary: Under the supervision of the Associate Director of Communications and Communities, the Manager is responsible for program development, administration, oversight, evaluation, and record-keeping of the private forestry outreach program. The Manager guides and aligns the work efforts of a team of specialized outreach staff to best support landowner engagement objectives and general public relations through publications, media and external relations, events and workshops, website/social media and other electronic communications.

The Manager serves as a primary internal and external consultant to staff and maintains key working relationships with partners. Of particular importance are state and regional collaborators who assist landowners to take the first steps in managing their forests with the assistance of a Colorado State Forest Service (CSFS) forestry professional. External land management collaboratives along with established natural resource educational/informational organizations are also a priority.

Required Job Qualifications:

- A Bachelor's degree in Forestry, Human Dimensions of Natural Resources, Business Administration in Marketing or similar degrees will be considered.
- Two years of experience in forestry or natural resources with an outreach component.
- 1+ years of supervisory experience.
- Successful applicants must have a valid driver's license or the ability to obtain a driver's license or access to a licensed driver by the employment start date.
