

POSITION: Real Estate Salesperson / Broker with Fountains Land, a division of F&W Forestry Services – Subcontracted employment based on commission.

LOCATIONS: South Central AR or North West SC, exact locations TBD

RESPONSIBILITIES: Conduct real estate marketing and sales services for our existing client base while working with our marketing division to expand business regionally.

REQUIREMENTS: We are seeking an individual with the ability to work independently as well as in a team environment. Must possess experience in the real estate business and hold an AR or SC Real Estate License. Experience with land sales of all sizes is a must. Experience with forest / land management is a plus. Professionalism, adherence to high ethical standards, dedication to serving client needs, good writing / communication skills and experience managing a business center are critical requirements.

Essential Functions: Real estate duties include, but are not limited to, marketing existing client lands, preparation of marketing material, daily interface with customers, working with other members of the real estate / management team and, procurement of new business.

Education and Experience: An Associates or bachelor's degree is a plus. Solid experience in real estate sales and marketing required.

COMPENSATION: Commission based

DURATION OF POSITION OPENING: Until positions are filled.

CONTACT: Submit all resumes/cover letters via email to jobposting10@fwforestry.com