

Position: Log Yard Supervisor

Office Location

Chestertown, NY

Description

We are looking for a Log Yard Supervisor to join the Lyme Adirondack Forest Company team. The Supervisor will be responsible for various aspects of log yard activity at our Chestertown, NY location.

Duties

- Log scaling
- Administration of log sales with onsite log buyers including chain saw work
- Dispatching and outbound truck scheduling
- Administration of weekly paperwork
- Inventory and ordering of supplies
- Daily interaction, scheduling and supervision of Lyme loader operators
- Operation of pickup w/plow and/or front end loader (preferred)
- Other log yard activities as needed

Education and Experience

- Associates degree + (preferred)
- 2+ years work in forest products industry (preferred)

Salary/Benefits

Competitive salary commensurate with experience. A company work truck will be provided. Paid vacation and holidays. Health/dental/vision insurance, 401(k), Disability and Life insurance coverages.

Application Process

Applicants should submit a resume to eross@lymeadirondack.com

Contact Eric Ross – 518-793-4481 x303

Lyme Adirondack Forest Company LLC (LAFCO) – based in Queensbury NY, currently employees 19 people charged with the management of 235,000 acres in the Adirondack region of New York. The lands are managed to FSC and SFI standards. LAFCO is also active in managing private forestland in the region, purchasing standing timber and purchasing delivered logs on the open market at our log yard in Chestertown NY.