

NOW HIRING: Director, Wisconsin Forestry Center & Assistant/Associate/Full Professor of Forestry

UW-Stevens Point's College of Natural Resources is seeking an experienced forestry leader to serve as Director of the Wisconsin Forestry Center (WFC) and faculty member in Forestry.

This full-time, 12-month tenure-track position combines strategic leadership, applied research, Extension outreach, grant development, and undergraduate teaching.

What You'll Do:

- Lead WFC programs, personnel, budgets, facilities, and strategic initiatives
- Develop and secure external funding for forestry research and outreach
- Build partnerships with forestry professionals and stakeholders across Wisconsin and beyond
- Lead innovative Extension, workforce development, and community outreach programs
- Mentor undergraduate and graduate students
- Teach up to 2 undergraduate courses per academic year
- Represent UW-Stevens Point and Extension Forestry at state, regional, and national levels

 Salary: $88,000–$120,000 annually, commensurate with education, experience, and qualifications. Relocation assistance may be available.

 Apply by October 18, 2026, for full consideration.

 Join UW-Stevens Point in advancing sustainable forests, strong forest-based economies, workforce development, and innovative forestry education and outreach.
